CLUB BUYS BONDS

LADIES VOTE TO SUBSCRIBE
$1000 TO LOAN AT TUES-
DAY MEETING

The Tuesday Afternoon Club met in regular session yesterday at 2:30 at the Masonic Temple, the meeting being called to order by the president, Mrs. William W. Ramsay. Following the reading of the minutes, Mrs. E. D. Yard, Mrs. Harry Greenwalt and Mrs. Ramsay reported having been recent delegates to the reciprocity meetings of the Glendora Woman's Club, the Los Angeles Travel Club and the San Pedro Woman's Club, respectively. All were pronounced delightful occasions, from which much pleasure and profit had been derived. Mrs. Ramsay talked understandingly for a few moments on food conservation, making clear the need of intelligent co-operation on the part of all women in the government's campaign against waste and extravagance, and the conserving of certain food necessities, such as butter fats, wheat, etc.

Mrs. Daniel Campbell's enthusiastic appeal for greater interest on the part of club members in their new "baby," the Red Cross war relief and recreation committee, of which she is chairman, evoked considerable applause.

Mrs. Warren Q. Roberts, chairman of the philanthropic committee, solicited canned fruits and jellies for distribution at Thanksgiving time to the Children's Hospital, the King's Daughters' Day Nursery, the Maternity Hospital and the Coleman House Association, all worthy charities. Empty jars will be given out in exchange for the full ones donated, she explained.

Various announcements were then read, after which it was moved and seconded that the club take $1000 worth of Liberty bonds. A general hand clapping approved the motion, which was carried with but one dissenting voice.

The program of the afternoon was a lecture-recital and readings from the dialect poems of Dr. William H. Drummond, the poet of the Habitant, by Louis F. D. Briols, a native of France and professor of romance languages. The simplicity and deep poetry of the French-Canadian peasantry were pictured, and their respect for the past and love of truth dwelt upon, characteristics clearly brought out in the poems selected. Delicate touches of pathos and humor were shown in "Madame Albany," and a strong spiritual note emphasized in "The Last Portage," a poem inspired by the love of Drummond for his lost son. Professor Briols stated that the Drummond types were the same as those depicted in Longfellow's "Evangeline" and in Millet's famous painting, "The Angelus." At a fitting conclusion to the delightful program, "A Nice Little Canadian," Mr. Drummond's tribute to the women of Quebec, was given with pleasing effect.

The meeting was adjourned following the singing in unison of "The Star Spangled Banner," Mrs. H. R. Boyer accompanying at the piano.

ENTERTAIN IOWA GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Norton are entertaining Mr. Norton's nieces, Misses Ida and Sadie Scripton, of Washington, Ia., as their house guests. The young ladies were glad to reach Glendale after an eventful trip, having been delayed by a very serious wreck on the Southern Pacific about ninety miles before reaching Salt Lake City. Their train was blocked on Saturday at Soldiers' Summit and was unable to proceed for 24 hours. Two were killed on the freight train which had collided with a passenger train on which two were seriously wounded. Passengers were obliged finally to walk some distance down a mountain side and were taken to Salt Lake City on the Salt Lake Route. However, connections were missed by the Misses Scripton and they were obliged to wait in Ogden some twenty hours more, so that their arrival in Glendale was considerably delayed. Now that they are safely here, having arrived on Tuesday evening, they find themselves so much pleased that they plan to spend most of the winter here, and are even contemplating making this their permanent home.

GLEN EYRIE PARTY

The Glen Eyrie Chapter of O. E. S. will give a Halloween party on Thursday evening at the Masonic Hall. Members of the chapter and friends are cordially invited. After a short business session, the evening will be given over to the entertainment. The committee in charge is Mrs. C. O. Pulliam, chairman, with the Misses Mae Cornwell and Carrie Cornwell.

THIS IS LIBERTY DAY

IN accordance with the President's proclamation a special effort is being made to consolidate our interests and urge more thorough and practical patriotism on the part of our citizens. The undersigned officially invites every person and organization in Glendale to attend a Patriotic Mass Meeting in the High School Auditorium this evening at 7:45.

J. S. THOMPSON,
Mayor of the City of Glendale.

THE FOOD QUESTION

STOP APPOINTING COMMITTEES
AND GET BUSY PRODUC-
ING FOOD

There is much talk about conservation of food. Talk does not conserve food, neither does talk produce more food. What is needed is active food producers. Vegetables, grains and fruits are produced from the soil. Laborers are needed to sow, plant and cultivate and harvest. Workers are needed more just now than talkers. Clear off the vacant lots near you instead of discussing the question of food conservation so much. Establish a chicken ranch on some of the waste land. Feed is high, but get busy and grow the grain that will be needed to feed the chickens. Stop so much talk and get busy. One Middle West farmer who is working hard from 5 o'clock in the morning until 8 o'clock at night, feeding hogs and cattle, plowing corn and digging potatoes, is doing more to feed the soldiers than 10,000 men and women who are talking about food shortage and a hundred other things they know nothing about. Yes, save, advocate a clean plate. That is sensible in time of war and in time of peace, but above all get busy, do something, raise a hill of potatoes, own a half dozen hens, get a few pigs ready for market. Anyway, stop talking and appointing committees and get busy doing something that is really worth while.

If all the publicity men who are furnishing copy to the newspapers would get busy with the hoe and produce something, that alone would feed thousands of soldiers. The soldiers must be fed, and the way to feed them is to produce the food they need to satisfy their hunger. Words will not satisfy anybody's hunger, much less the hunger of an active soldier boy.

ENTERTAIN MISSIONARIES

Mr. and Mrs. John Hyde Braly, 205 North Brand, entertained at dinner Monday evening Mr. Braly's niece and her husband, Rev. and Mrs. Adolphus Hummell, who are returned missionaries from Africa, and their son, John. Mr. Hummell was forced to give up his work in Africa on account of his health and is now pastor of the Presbyterian church at Fruitvale, Cal. He was attending the Presbyterian Synod in Los Angeles last week. Rev. T. F. McCrea of Glendale, who is on a furlough from his work in the China mission field, was invited to meet Rev. and Mrs. Hummell. Mr. and Mrs. Braly enjoyed their guests and the interesting discussion of their work and conditions in foreign countries. Rev. Hummell is very familiar with the treatment by Germany of her colonies in Africa, and says we must do everything in our power to prevent Germany from being victorious in this world struggle. The guests enjoyed the splendid chicken dinner for which the Braly home is famous.

AT CAMP LEWIS

CAMP LEWIS, TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 24.—Shooting is imminent at Camp Lewis. Four thousand rifles arrived this week, and immediately on their arrival plans to put them to use were commenced. While 4000 rifles are not enough for 35,000 men, the supply is sufficient to give every man a turn at a gun, which he will keep a few days, care for and limber up on the target range. "We want to make every man a sharpshooter," declared Brigadier General Stier, who called attention to General Pershing's message to American troops that skill in the use of small arms is one of the most important things for them to acquire.

PERSHING SEES FRENCH VICTORY

COMMANDER OF AMERICAN FORCES WITNESSES OFFENSIVE WHEN FRENCH TANKS WIN VICTORY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES AFIELD, October 24.—Gen. Pershing witnessed the great French victory on the Aisne. Today he penetrated deep into the conquered zone. French tanks had a brilliant share in this most important victory, taking part in many attacks. They are credited with the capture of Guilan farm.

DUKHOMIN MAY COMMAND RUSSIAN ARMIES

PERSIAN COMMANDER IN GALICIA IS IN PETROGRAD TO ATTEND SECRET PARLIAMENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PETROGRAD, October 24.—Gen. Dukhomin, Persian commander on the Galician front, arrived in Petrograd today to participate in the secret session of the temporary parliament which begins today. Newspapers announce that Premier Kerensky is soon to relinquish his post as commander in chief of the army to Dukhomin. This is taken to indicate an improvement in the morale and discipline of the Russian soldiers.

AMERICAN STEAMER SUNK

TWENTY-FOUR LIVES LOST WHEN THE SANTA ELENA IS TORPEDOED NEAR THE ISLAND OF FEROL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
BUENOS AIRES, October 24.—The sinking of the American steamer Santa Elena was reported from Spain in dispatches received today. The message says 24 lives were lost. The vessel was sunk near the island of Ferol, and the captain and one sailor are said to be the only survivors.

CHANCELLOR MAY RESIGN

REPORT COMES VIA AMSTERDAM THAT MICHAELIS HAS PLACED PORTFOLIO IN KAISER'S HANDS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, October 24.—A wireless message received in Amsterdam asserted that Chancellor Michaelis has placed his portfolio in the Kaiser's hands. The report is unconfirmed from other sources. Opposition against Chancellor Michaelis is growing steadily. It started when the majority Socialist party tried to get a statement of war aims from the Reichstag and Michaelis dodged the issue. It is reported that the chancellorship has been offered to Von Buelow in case Michaelis resigns.

8000 PRISONERS TAKEN IN AISNE BATTLE

MANY OFFICERS AMONG THE GERMANS TAKEN IN BIG FRENCH VICTORY YESTERDAY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, October 24.—Prisoners in the Aisne victory today reached a total of 8000, including 160 officers and the cream of the Crown Prince's troops. Official statements said that among the prisoners eight separate German divisions had been identified, three full regimental staffs were taken, while two reserve divisions suffered.

GERMAN COUNTER ATTACKS FRUITLESS

LONDON, October 24.—Violent German counter attacks which were launched against newly won British and French positions in Flanders were fruitless, Marshal Haig reported today. Vigorous counter blows launched by the Germans against the point where the French and British troops join was completely repulsed yesterday.

HAPPENINGS IN STATE

SAN FRANCISCO THEATERS
WANT PATRONS TO PAY
WAR TAX

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—San Francisco motion picture theater owners met here today to decide whether the public or the theaters will pay the new war tax on movie tickets. The war tax amounts to a cent on each movie ticket, and the theater owners are gravely perplexed as to whether to make their prices, heretofore "ten, twenty, thirty," become "eleven, twenty-one, thirty-one," or to attempt to absorb the tax themselves. They feel the public might balk at the former solution, and they are not enthusiastic over the latter. Already the tax has had one sad effect—it has brought about the curtailment of passes. In fact, the pass, in the sense of an absolutely free ticket, now is past, as it were. For the theater men have decreed that pass holders—and their numbers will be greatly reduced, must punge up the penny tax just like any one else, for the government recognizes no passes in its revenue bill.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 24.—Thirty-eight per cent of the miners working in the mines of Amador county are infected with hookworm, according to a report of Professor Kofoid, biologist of the state board of health. Kofoid visited the mines in that county and out of 90 men he examined 35 were suffering from hookworm. In one mine it was found 55 per cent of the men were victims of the disease. The disease starts from a small worm that works its way through the miner's shoes into his feet. It then gets into the blood, deposits its eggs and these hatch into worms, which lodge themselves on the intestinal walls. One of the first symptoms of the disease is itching feet.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 24.—James Porter Diggs, pugilist, and Joseph Clark, both negroes, will make up Yolo county's quota to the colored draft contingent which entrains October 27 for Camp Lewis. Even if the company is comparatively small, it must have a captain under the law, so Jim and Joe have agreed to draw straws to see which shall boss the other during the trip to the camp.

THE SERVICE FLAG

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Rochester, who are living at the Victor Hotel, are perhaps the first in Glendale to display the service flag, thus honoring their son, Dr. Rochester, who is in the service of Uncle Sam. The service flag is becoming immensely popular, and the sentiment is pretty, while the banner itself is very beautifully designed in the national colors. The flag is red with a white patch in the center. A blue star on the white field represents the boy who has gone. They are known as mothers' flags. Some of the department stores are giving away these flags to be displayed in homes where one or more boys have answered their country's call, the banner bearing a star for each boy.

Dr. Locke's church in Los Angeles, as well as other churches and a number of the large mercantile establishments, are displaying these flags with a star for each boy who has gone.

It is to be hoped that this custom will become popular, and it is certain that it will. It would be a lovely tribute to the boys who have gone from Glendale if this flag were displayed in every one of their homes. It might also be an eye-opener to many to learn how many Glendale boys have gone, and it might make other boys want to have this flag floating to their breeze from their own front porches.

MASS MEETING

GRAND PATRIOTIC RALLY PLANNED FOR TONIGHT AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

Despite the lateness of the hour, the mass meeting tonight is arousing a wide interest, and it is expected that a big crowd will be present. The speakers for the Liberty loan and the Red Cross are well and favorably known, and the message to be delivered by Dr. Francis, chaplain at large to the U. S. Liberty camps, is of fascinating and thrilling interest. Today is Liberty Day. There is no better way you could close it than to come to the Glendale Union High School at 7:45 tonight. Bring your family and friends. There will be no admission and you will be the richer for having spent your evening thus.

One of the speakers tonight will be Corporal Raynor, a veteran, who has had one son killed and three sons now in the British army. He will be well worth hearing.

(Note—This takes the place of the Thursday evening meeting, which was first planned. It was impossible to arrange it. Come tonight.)

The committee on entertainment of the local Red Cross chapter recently sent out a circular letter to nearly 1000 members in Glendale, asking co-operation in the sale of tickets for the course of benefit entertainments, aid for the Red Cross bazar and assistance in the second drive for new members. Already scores of tickets have been sold, and it is surprising how many names of prospective new members have come in as a result of this request.

We are in a position to state that the first Red Cross concert, which is to be given at the High School Auditorium on Monday evening next, October 29, at 7:45, will be of unusual merit. Several professional singers from Los Angeles, violin solos and spoken pieces are on the program, and two numbers of special interest will be a string sextet under the direction of Professor Hobie, who for years was connected with the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra.

The tickets on sale at the Red Cross headquarters are season tickets, and are good for all the series of six monthly concerts and cost $1.50. It is not necessary to secure these tickets in order to come to this concert on Monday, for 25 and 50-cent seats may be paid for at the doors.

The Red Cross treasury is about empty. At least 75 ladies are forced to slow up their work and thus waste both time and opportunity because there is not money enough to buy the wherewithal with which to work. The concerts are given for the sole purpose of getting more money, and it is desired to state here that no money is paid for talent or advertising, and all the work—and it is REAL WORK—in connection with the planning and financing of these entertainments is done with no thought of any reward save the inward satisfaction of having done one's duty.

Plan to patronize the first Red Cross concert. Invite your friends to come with you. Save Monday evening for this purpose. "Do your bit."

HALLOWEEN SHOWER

A delightful shower was given on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Zella Keim, 1442 West Second street, in honor of Mrs. George Martin, nee Miss Lucile Spencer, who was married on October 4, and Miss Addie Midcalf, whose engagement to Mr. Fred Haskell of Highland Park, was announced in September. Miss Midcalf will be married in December.

The house was beautifully decorated with Halloween decorations, pumpkin vines, pumpkins and all, woodbine and autumn leaves being artistically combined in lovely effects. The guests were met at the door by a very realistic ghost, and the evening was spent with Halloween games. Mysterious strings led each of the participants to a pretty Halloween favor, the guests of honor finding a pumpkin each, containing the many charming gifts with which they were surprised. A delicious supper of pumpkin pie and chocolate was served on Mrs. Keim's beautiful wedding china. The guests, in addition to those honored, were: Miss Alice Midcalf, sister of Miss Addie; Miss Alta Spencer and Mrs. Spencer, sister and mother of the bride; Miss Olive Pixley, Miss Susan Taggart, Miss Sarah Hommer, Miss Margaret Smith, Miss Rosa Peck, Mrs. E. Hoskyns, Mrs. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Keim, parents of the hostess, all of Glendale, and Miss Elmer of Los Angeles.

At this time when there are so many channels calling for the use of money for good purposes, the donor must be his own judge as to which causes are worthy.

THIS IS YOUR FIGHT

Innumerable arguments have been given to show why you should buy Liberty Bonds as the best investment in the world today. From a purely selfish standpoint you are the greatest beneficiary when you purchase these bonds, for they are the highest class security obtainable.

Aside from the cold-blooded investment standpoint there is the human interest side of his question.

We are in this great war to a finish and have already spent billions. It is now a race to see which side can develop its armies and navies to the point where victory is assured.

The United States has made the greatest start the world has ever seen. Whether you realize it or not, everything you own, including life, liberty and happiness, is at stake in the result of this struggle. It's up to every one of us to back our own government and its army and navy to the limit.

You are getting the finest security in the world for every dollar you put up, but if you were not getting a penny's worth of security you would have to back your own country in this race or go to the wall. Just get this idea into your head: This is now our war, and it's up to us to win. If we don't win, all the investments and savings you have made so carefully won't be worth the paper they are written on. Forget the idea you are running any risk in backing your side of the fight to the limit.

An overwhelming subscription of this Second Liberty Loan will do more to discourage the Central powers than an army of a million men. Dig out your dollars and subscribe today, for you are helping yourself more than anybody else. It's a poor man who doesn't back his own fight to the last ditch and subscribing money to save your own skin is the easiest thing you can do.—The Manufacturer.

MUCH AVAILABLE WHEAT LAND IN CALIFORNIA

That there are thousands of acres of unimproved but highly fertile ranch lands in California, that can be utilized in filling the government's demands for 90,000 more acres of wheat in this state during the coming year, but that some kind of a government conducted crop loan system is badly needed to aid the owners of this land in putting it under cultivation, is indicated by investigations made by the California State Council of Defense into unimproved lands holdings fit for crop production in this state.

In many instances, it has been found by the State Council of Defense, there are large but unimproved tracts of land now used for grazing purposes, but sufficiently fertile to grow bumper crops of wheat and other grains, and the owners are ready and willing to help answer Uncle Sam's call for increased wheat production, but because of federal restrictions on loans by national banks on unimproved land, necessary financial aid with which to prepare and plant these lands is hard to secure.

Instancing the need of a federal crop loan system and at the same time reflecting the attitude of several owners of large but unimproved tracts which could be utilized for wheat growing, is a communication received by the State Council from William S. Cox, prominent Oakland land owner and California attorney. He says:

"We have 40,000 acres of unimproved land in the northern part of the state which we are willing to plant to wheat or any other grain, but can not because of lack of necessary finances. In order that it may be utilized in the present war emergency, we are willing to enter into any of the following proposals with the government or the State Council of Defense. This land should raise twenty bushels or more of wheat to the acre. The propositions are:

"1. To lease the entire tract to the state or to the government for the duration of the war, the rental to be sufficient only to pay the taxes and fixed charges, which are less than $1 an acre.

"2. To lease in tracts to any person whom the government or the State Council of Defense may designate, for a term of years, for one-tenth of the crop and the payment of taxes.

"3. To sell the land in tracts to actual settlers at about $25 an acre on 25 years' time, at 4 per cent interest, no payments but interest and taxes to be required for five years, then $1 an acre annually to be paid on the purchase price. Under this proposition the settler must have a capital of about $25 an acre to put into crops and buildings."

The State Council of Defense is endeavoring to find a way in which the 40,000 acres offered can be utilized for raising war crops.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Operations were rare. Nobody had seen a silo. Nobody had swatted the fly. Nobody had appendicitis. Ladies wore bustles. Nobody wore white shoes. Nobody sprayed orchards. Cream was 5 cents a pint. Cantaloupes were muskmelons. Milk shake was a favorite drink. Advertisers did not tell the truth. You never heard of a "tin Lizzie." The hired girl drew one fifty a week.

Farmers came to town for their mail.

Nobody "listened in" on a telephone.

Nobody cared for the price of gasoline.

Folks said pneumatic tires were a joke.

Straw stacks were burned instead of baled.

People thought English sparrows were "birds."

There were no "sane Fourths" or electric meters.

You stuck tubes in your ears to hear a phonograph, and it cost a dime.

A REAL FOOD SHORTAGE

Those of our citizens who do not feel alarm at the present clamor of government officials in crying aloud for food conservation must revise their opinions and bend their energies to make every morsel of food go as far as possible. No nation or people under the sun is free from the peril of food shortage, hanging like a sword of Damocles over every part of the earth. The great war has created conditions without precedent. Tens of millions of men have been drawn from the channels of productivity into the trenches of warfare. The demand for food never was so great in volume. The number of growers of food diminishes as the war draws men into military service. Furthermore, serious crop shortages in different parts of the world have aggravated the critical food situation.

There is downright need for food conservation. All the agitation in this country in behalf of prevention of waste and wise use of food supplies is warranted. It is not mere sensationalism. It does not emanate from exaggerated alarmist fears. Conservation is vitally needed to meet a real crisis.—Monrovia News.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair to night and Thursday. Westerly winds.

FIRE PROTECTION BONDS—WHY NOT VOTE "YES"?

The secretary of the Chamber of Commerce has tried to do or to advocate only such things as appeared for the betterment of the whole city of Glendale, without prejudice for or against any particular section thereof. From this liberal viewpoint he has endeavored to weigh all available facts pertaining to the election set for Tuesday, October 30, to vote whether or not the City Trustees shall issue bonds to the amount of $17,000 for better fire protection.

His sincere conviction is that such bonds would be for the betterment of Glendale, and therefore should be voted. Among the obvious reasons are the following:

1. Our city fire engine depends too much for its usefulness upon the amount of water pressure, which varies from an efficient high to an inefficient low degree. Therefore, should a dangerous fire occur while the water pressure is too low, disastrous loss of property, perhaps of life, might reasonably be expected. Why take such a needless risk? One fire might cost several times the amount to be voted in bonds.

2. The saving to the whole town in cost of fire insurance alone would in time pay for the adequate fire protection proposed by the City Trustees.

3. When persons from other localities are considering the advantages and disadvantages of our community poor fire protection offsets many strong attractions to the prospective home buyer or home builder, particularly in a city of wooden houses.

4. Since the old fire apparatus is fully paid for, and a long existing controversy settled thereby, the coming bond election can be wisely decided on its own merits, uninfluenced by confusing side issues. The City Trustees have publicly pledged themselves to use the money proceeds of those bonds for certain specified new fire apparatus, and for no other purpose.

5. Is it not the part of intelligent good citizenship to vote on these bonds because of conditions which exist now, rather than for reasons supposed to prevail at any previous election?

JUST A TAIL HOLD

Some people are too literal for anything. A young man gave a graphic description of a narrow escape that he recently had had from an enraged bull.

"I seized him by the tail," he exclaimed, "and there I was. I was afraid to hold on and I dare not let go."

"Between the horns of a dilemma, as it were," ventured a young lady, very much interested.

"No," replied the young man, "I wasn't between the horns at all; besides, he wasn't a dilemma; he was a Jersey."

Kind Lady—And you really took the pledge one time, did you?

Rummy Robbins—Yes, mam. I seed it in a deserted cottage onst, an' as dat was all dere was I took it an' sold it. De frame was gold an' dey gimme er dollar fer it.

THE DIGNITY OF WORK

My theory of life is no indolence theory. I have worked hard and mean to work hard on things which have a worthy end and use. What I protest against is asceticism, blindness to what is beautiful and pleasurable, a preference for the disagreeable, above all, the parting of life into this element or that, and a contempt of half the life we have to live as if it hindered us from living the other half.—John Richard Green.

"I say, Arnold, I want to apologize for the nasty temper I displayed last night. Your wife and sister must have thought I was crazy."
"Oh, no, they didn't. I fixed that all right."
"Mighty good of you, old man. Thanks."
"Yes, I told them you were drunk."

Today's Supreme Duty

No greater duty confronts us today than to do our part in making the sale of Liberty Bonds a complete success. We must back up the boys who are fighting our battles. Our homes, our national honor, our future commercial success, are at stake. These bonds are so secure, so stable in value, so quickly convertible into cash, that the purchase of them involves no element of sacrifice. You can exchange them for anything you want to buy. Meantime, they offer the same rate of interest as our best savings banks are paying.

WAS HUXLEY COLOR BLIND?

Hon. Dr. Lyttelton relates a story of the late Professor Huxley. He was walking one day with a friend who differed from him in being a sincere believer of the Christian faith. Suddenly Huxley said: "When I feel that people believe in Christianity I take it for granted they are muddle-headed and confused in mind, but you are a man with a clear head. How does it come about that you believe in those things, which to me are unthinkable? The other replied: "Do you think there is such a thing possible as mental color blindness, by which I mean there are some minds incapable of seeing what others see quite distinctly, just as there are some others who can not see colors which others see plainly?"

Huxley stopped in his walk, and said: "Of course, that may be, and that is perfectly possible," and then, with all the grand honesty of his temperament, he said: "And if I happen to be a man of that kind, I would not know it." He then walked on without saying any more.

THE FIRST MUSEUM

The first museum was part of the palace of Alexandria, where learned men were maintained at the public cost, just as eminent public servants were in the Prytaneum at Athens. Its foundation is attributed to Ptolemy Philadelphus about 280 B. C.

Personals

Mr. J. R. Danner, 331 Gardena avenue, left on Tuesday evening for Imperial Valley, where he has accepted a position.

The New Thought Bible class will omit the meeting this evening as announced Tuesday in the Glendale Evening News, in order not to conflict with the important mass meeting at the high school.

Miss Hazel Shackford, 406 West Third street, spent Sunday with Mrs. L. H. Hurtt at her home, 3816 Ingraham street, Los Angeles. A delicious dinner was enjoyed, with music in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kirk and their little protege, Miss Helen McConnan, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Hyde Braly, having motored down from Santa Barbara. They returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. West of San Rafael street, Glendale, spent the week end at San Diego, also visiting Camp Kearney. Miss Ethyl West visited many of her classmates there, soldier boys of the California Field Artillery.

The banks of Glendale have decided to keep open this evening until 10 o'clock in order to give every one an opportunity to subscribe to the Liberty bonds. This is in accordance with the action of the Los Angeles Clearing House Association.

Miss Elmer of Los Angeles, who was the house guest of Miss Zella Keim on Tuesday, in order to attend the shower given for Mrs. George Martin and Miss Addie Midcal, returned to her home this morning.

The ladies of the West Glendale Methodist church will have an all-day meeting at the church on Thursday. The time will be devoted to the work of tying comforts and sewing carpets during the forenoon. In the afternoon there will be a business meeting.

Mr. A. W. Bryant of San Francisco is visiting his son, Mr. Earl L. Bryant, and family, of 1461 Vine street, while he looks about Glendale for a home for his family. Mr. Bryant has followed the example of many other visitors to Glendale in deciding to remain permanently.

Mrs. J. P. Shropshire, 445 Everett street, was greatly surprised on Tuesday by a visit from her brother, Mr. S. T. Kincaid, whom she had not seen for 17 years. For all of that time Mr. Kincaid has been in Alaska, Fairbanks being his home there. He expects to spend the winter in Southern California, and left this morning for the home of a brother, Mr. J. B. Kincaid, in Downy, Cal. Another brother has his home in Sunland, where he will also make a visit before returning to Glendale.

SILAS W. BERCAW

Mr. Silas W. Bercaw, whose death on Sunday, October 21, was announced on Monday, was one of the pioneer residents of Glendale, coming here about thirty years ago, when there were but a few houses in what is now the city. He resided at the corner of Third and Adams streets until about two years ago, when he moved to Santa Ana. His death occurred there at the family residence, 825 Garfield street, in his eightieth year. He is survived by a widow, five sons, one daughter and eleven grandchildren. His children are: Harry P., of Gary, Ind.; George W. of Glendale, Arthur W. of Whittier, Cal., Edgar H. of Victorville, Cal., Ora W. of Saugus, Cal., and Emma J. of Irvine, Cal. Mr. Bercaw had served in the Civil war, in the 64th regiment, Ohio, and was wounded near Spring Hill, Tenn., carrying his wounds until death.

MONTHLY RECITAL

The first of a series of monthly class recitals was given on Monday, October 22, from 4 till 6, by the pupils of Miss S. G. Champlain at the Glendale Studios, 1114½ West Broadway. Those taking part were: Frank and George Herald, Marian Cummings, Lillian Cassell, Roma Staub, Dorothy Shaw, Alberta Plasterer, Gladys Wodoyard, John Farles, Ellen Myton, Marian Springer and Katherine Delgado. It was announced that the following pupils are among those who have begun the Sherwood course: Jane Butterfield, Katherine Delgado and Marian Cummings.

After a short drill in ear training, a social hour was enjoyed. The refreshments and decorations suggested the idea of Halloween. A certain number of the pupils will perform at each of these recitals, with only the pupils present. At intervals during the season public recitals will be given, at which parents and friends will be welcome.

DOUBLE BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

A double celebration was brought about by the birthday surprise with which Mrs. O. R. Barnett, of 1434 West Broadway, honored her sister, Mrs. N. W. Warman, of Huntington Park, on Friday evening, October 20. When Mr. and Mrs. Warman, who had motored up from Huntington Park, reached the home of Mrs. Barnett, they found a party of friends awaiting them, as well as a delicious dinner. Those present besides the host and hostess and the guest of honor and her husband were: Miss Virginia Archer and Mr. Stanley Warman of Huntington Park. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Phillips, Miss Henry and Mr. Moorehead of Los Angeles, and Mrs. H. M. Merrill of Glendale. In retaliation, Mr. Warman, who is the president of the Warman steel casting foundry in Huntington Park, invited the assembled guests to a duck dinner at his home the following Monday evening, the ducks to be obtained by himself on Sunday at a hunting trip at Little Bear Lake. A return surprise was indeed waiting on Monday, when it was revealed that Mr. Warman had made his invitation more than good by producing 24 ducks, which is the limit allowed for the season, besides ten exceedingly good mountain trout. It is unnecessary to add that the dinner was very good indeed. Though Miss Neary and Mr. Moorehead had been unable to accept the second invitation, First Lieutenant Sherman of Camp Kearney, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Phillips, and Dr. Conrad of Glendale made up the number. Beautiful music was also enjoyed during the evening, Miss Virginia Archer, who is a remarkable organist, giving some especially enjoyable numbers.

MEAN SNEAK

Mean sneak was he who this forenoon called the Evening News reporter and entered a protest about a proclamation, Liberty bonds, etc. When asked to give his name, then is the time the sneak, slacker, snake-in-the-grass and despicable spy exhibited his real makeup. He refused to give his name. U-boat like, he preferred to remain hidden. The Evening News has no use for any one who is so void of common courtesy and good manners that he will even attempt to communicate a message by phone without giving his name.

Budd—It's a beauty, but isn't it rather—er—extravagant?

It is most gratifying to us when our customers tell us how they appreciate our work and service. We make every effort to set a high standard.

MAN IS SNOWED UNDER

The female sex has always been a prime favorite with us. We commenced taking our hats off to persons of that sex very early in life, and whenever we have had a chance we have voted and talked in favor of making them equal to men in the rights of citizenship.

But we are now constrained to admit that we have never done women as a class full justice. They are entitled to more than we have given them of honor for actual accomplishment. Of late years they have been distancing man in the race for the distinctions of life in the field of intellect. They are snowing us under, and if man does not look out the prediction of Lord Lutton in "The Coming Race," picturing women in the human society of the future as the superiors of men in all the arts and sciences, as well as physically and in strength of character, will come true.

These thoughts are suggested by a glance at the honor roll recently issued by the University of California. The score is 131 girls to 29 boys. Better than six to one. You can make all the allowances you like for the greater docility of girls under pedagogical methods, and for the fact that "marks" are likely to give them more credit for the thing in which girls excel, but after the discounts are all made, the girls still so far surpass the boys that it is useless guessing whether the score is exactly six to one, or something else equally humiliating. On a straight test of capacity to use their brains, the selected young women of California have distanced the selected young men. If this thing keeps on we shall soon see intelligence relegated to the place which masculine self-defense has already relegated refinement and modesty—as a "sissy" quality, beneath the contempt of a real man.—Monrovia News.

While a traveler was waiting for an opportunity to show his samples to a merchant a customer came in and bought a couple of nightshirts. Afterward a long, lanky laborer, with his trousers tied below his knees, said to the merchant:

"What was them things that chap bought?"

"Nightshirts. Can I sell you one?"

"No, I should think not. I don't sit about much o' nights."—Dallas News.

200,000 FIRST AID EXPERTS TRAINED BY RED CROSS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The American Red Cross has developed and trained nearly 200,000 first aid experts in the last six months, it was learned today. They are all men, and all available for war service if needed. The course of instruction, which is in the hands of 7000 Red Cross physicians and surgeons throughout the country, also is open to women. Nearly 100,000 railroad men, half as many lumbermen and as many quarrymen have received instruction in first aid this year.

This work covers the stoppage of hemorrhages, resuscitating following drowning or gas asphyxiation, the carrying of injured persons and many other phases of first aid, especially in the hazardous industries.

The course covers ten lectures, supplemented by the requisite practice work, at the conclusion of which certificates are issued to those completing the course satisfactorily.

The Red Cross has two first aid cars for the instruction of railroad men, one of which has just finished a tour of three months giving instruction to the railroad men.

Through these courses the first aid division of the Red Cross is building up a reserve of trained men available not only for Red Cross war service, but also for sanitary training detachments to provide a sanitary reserve for the army and navy.

TWO WEEKS' CONVENTION

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 24.—California Seventh Day Adventists' leaders will take a prominent part in the two weeks' convention which the world leaders of the denomination will hold in this city from October 26 to November 10. The biggest question that will come before the convention will be that of holding the next quadrennial session of the world conference in San Francisco from March 28 to April 21, 1918, and the California representatives will figure largely in making the final plans. At the convention in San Francisco delegates will attend from every state in the Union, every province in Canada, and many of the foreign countries, and problems affecting more than 5000 churches in the denomination will be considered.

Rev. Dr. E. E. Andross, of Glendale, Cal., president of the Pacific Union Conference, which includes the six conferences in California and those in Arizona, Utah, Nevada and Western Colorado in its territory, is at the head of the California delegation. Those who have come here from the publishing house operated by the denomination at Mountain View include President C. H. Jones, Vice President H. H. Hall and N. G. H. Childs, secretary-treasurer. These men will lay before the bishops of the denomination, whose convention the one here is, arrangements that they have made for the holding of the coming convention in the Civic Auditorium in San Francisco. The coming convention will be the most important ever held in the history of the denomination, and in addition to delegates being elected from the many churches, hundreds and hundreds of lay members from all parts of North America will also attend.

Questions of the greatest concern will be discussed at the convention here. Appropriations amounting to nearly a million dollars will be made for the furtherance of the church in foreign countries; many missionaries will be sent out from this country, the various departments of the parent body of the church will be strengthened; evangelistic efforts along extensive lines will be arranged to be held in different large cities in America, and the medical, educational and publishing interests will also be enlarged.

In the gathering here are practically all of the bishops of the denomination in North America, and the leaders of the general world and North American division conferences which have their headquarters together in Washington, D. C.

A BRILLIANT RECORD

The demand for state money is increasing and the highest total during the last three years has been reached. October 15 the twelve million mark was passed, and now the state has on deposit in banks $12,281,775. The rate of interest when State Treasurer Friend W. Richardson took office was as low, in many cases, as two per cent, but he has gradually increased it until now all banks are paying 2 1/2 per cent or over. At the present time the bids are 2%, 2 1/2% and in many cases 3 per cent. This new policy has resulted in increasing the state's revenue more than $40,000 a year.

THE PRICE OF SOUND HEALTH

Glendale Sanitarium Glendale, California

The mere ability to perform your daily work does not indicate necessarily you are blessed with health. Health—in its fullest sense—means the absolute, harmonious functioning of every organ in the body—an active mind—a buoyant soul. Health of the right sort makes life a perpetual joy. It makes the mere act of existence—the very act of breathing—a constant source of pleasure.

FACES FOREST EXHAUSTION

Quebec's provincial government is seriously considering statements made by some of the limit holders before the news print inquiry. These were to the effect that they were reckoning upon the depletion of their limits in periods ranging up to fifty years. To illustrate this, figures were given to show that last year's exports of forest products to the United States showed an excess to the value of $5,000,000 over those of the previous year.

The government agrees with the limit holders that such increasing pressure upon Quebec's forest resources can not be withstood indefinitely. Officials are now studying scientific methods to conserve the forest wealth of the province and to make it a permanent asset.
